Dear Sir:

The Pennsylvania Legal Society would like to have a representative from your organization speak at Penn State. Possible topics to be covered are: the CIA as a Career; the role of the CIA; the CIA today; and the CIA in the future. The Society is an organization for those students who plan to attend law school and are interested in government work and politics. We are inviting many speakers to this campus including the Secretary of State, a Secret Service representative, Mr. Abe Fortas, and Presidential Candidates. We have already had a FBI representative speak here and we have six commitments from the candidates.

There are many options opened for speaking engagements. You may speak to a rather small audience, approximately thirty members and guests, four hundred, or 2,600 in our beautiful University Auditorium!

We would be very honored if someone, possibly an administrator, could visit Penn State. We will be anxiously waiting for your reply.

Sincerely yours,

Kennan George Dandar
